Dear Dr. M. Arif Rahman Hakim,

We have looked at your manuscript entitled "The Reconstruction of Blended Learning Teaching Model For Online Learning System During Covid-19 Pandemic at Public Islamic University (PTKI) in Indonesia" (Manuscript IJEM_ID#22022016262713). It is suitable for our journal's scope.

However, our initial review of your paper has showed that your paper is not suitable our template. So the editorial process has been paused.

Please see the information in our web site: (<https://ijem.com/instructions-for-authors>)

Paper template: Author(s) must use this template for their paper(s). As you can see at the template, the manuscripts should include following parts: A full title, a short title to be used as a running head, authors' names, authors' affiliated institution name(s), authors' email addresses, authors' ORCID numbers, abstract, key words, authorship contribution statement, introduction, literature review, methodology, findings/ results (seperately), discussion (seperately), conclusion (seperately), recommendations (seperately), limitations (seperately), and references. (See https://www.ijem.com/ijem\_paper\_template.docx)

* Your paper doesn't include "recommendations" parts.

* The discussion part is weak.

The discussion should show how your findings fit with existing knowledge, what new insights they contribute, and what consequences they have for theory or practice. Ask yourself these questions:

Do your results agree with previous research? If so, what do they add to it?
Are your findings very different from other studies? If so, why might this be?
Do the results support or challenge existing theories?

* Provide English translation of the title of non English sources as below:

Bussieres, E.-L., St-Germain, A., Dube, M., & Richard, M.-C. (2017). Efficacite et efficience des programmes de transition a la vie adulte: Une revue systematique [Effectiveness and efficiency of adult transition programs: A systematic review]. Canadian Psychology/ Psychologie canadienne, 58(1), 354–365. <https://doi.org/10.1037/cap0000104>

---

Note for this example that Canadian Psychology/Psychologie canadienne is a bilingual journal that is published with a bilingual title; if the journal title were only in French it would not be necessary to translate it in the reference.

* Please edit all citations and references according to APA 7 style (See <https://www.euijer.com/citation-guide> and <https://www.scribbr.com/apa-style/apa-seventh-edition-changes/>). Eg. The publisher location is no longer included in the reference. URLs are no longer preceded by "Retrieved from," unless a retrieval date is needed. The website name is included (unless it's the same as the author), and web page titles are italicized and et al. DOIs are formatted the same as URLs. The label "DOI:" is no longer necessary. The in-text citation for works with three or more authors is shortened right from the first citation. You only include the first author's name and "et al.". All the titles of the articles and books should be lowercase. Provide the issue numbers of the articles (if any). Provide all doi links of the references (if any) (see <http://doi.crossref.org/simpleTextQuery>).

Please edit your paper and send your revised paper as an attachment by replying this email in 5 days. The deadline for your submission is February 26, 2022. If you need more time, please don't hesitate to contact me.

Please let us know, when you receive this email. We are looking forward to getting your revised submission.

Best regards,
Ahmet Savas, Ph.D.
