Abstract

The research that the author uses is a library research which is carried out using qualitative methods. This research aims to understand the hadith of the Prophet Muhammad related to caring for orphans. In this study, the primary sources are related classical hadith books, such as Sahih al-Bukhari, Sahih Muslim, Sunan Abu Daud, Sunan at-Turmudzi, Sunan an-Nasa'i, and Sunan Ibn Majjah, and other books. Meanwhile, the secondary (supporting) sources of this research are the literature related to the study of caring for orphans. The results of this study can be concluded that, there are 10 hadiths that explain about caring for orphans and their virtues, which were narrated by Imam Bukhari, Imam Muslim, Abu Daud, Nasa'i, Ibn Majah, Tirmidhi, and Imam Malik. In the hadith, there are several forms of caring for orphans taught by the Prophet, namely; Support him, love and care for him like his own son or brother, guarantee all his needs and take care and use his property properly. So that if the practice of orphans is done with full devotion to Allah SWT, there will be a lot of wisdom and also the rewards promised by Allah and His Messenger, including; invites sustenance and blessings, creates a sense of peace and happiness, gets intercession and will be paired with the Prophet Muhammad in Heaven.
