The Proceedings of ADIA 2024, the Annual International Conference of the Association of Lecturers in Adab Sciences (ADIA), centered on the theme "Strengthening Digital Humanities in Islamic Civilization, Literature, Culture, and Library Studies." Held by the Faculty of Adab and Humanities at UIN Ar-Raniry Banda Aceh, this open-access journal serves as a comprehensive repository of scholarly research and discussions presented at the conference. The journal encompasses a wide range of topics, including digital applications in Islamic civilization, literature, culture, and library studies, reflecting the intersection of technology and traditional disciplines within the Islamic context. With contributions from academics, researchers, and practitioners, the Proceedings of ADIA 2024 provide valuable insights and
