Hello Dr Anita,

Received, thank you for the prompt return and good attention to detail. All seems in good order and at this stage we do not have any questions arising. Your article will appear in IIER 34(3), estimated date of publication mid to late September 2024. As usual I am IIER's copy editor for 34(3) and in due course you will receive a proof reading copy from Clare McBeath.

As an interim step, please check the draft bios and "Please cite as" below. We suggest that you expand your bio (briefly). Please advise.

Best wishes,

Roger
