Madania: Jurnal Kajian Keislaman is a double-blind peer-reviewed journal that publishes original research articles and reviews in the field of Islamic studies. This journal is dedicated to supporting the development of Islamic knowledge globally by providing a platform for scholars, researchers, and academics to publish and share their research findings with a broader academic community.

All submissions to Madania undergo a rigorous double-blind peer-review process to ensure the quality and validity of the published research. The journal encourages innovative and original contributions that enhance the understanding of Islamic sciences and their application to address contemporary challenges in a dynamic world.

Madania is published biannually in June and December by Universitas Islam Negeri Fatmawati Sukarno Bengkulu. The journal has been recognised for its excellence with accreditation "B" as of 3 July 2014, based on the Decree of the Minister of Education and Culture of the Republic of Indonesia Number 212/P/2014. In 2023, Madania achieved the SINTA 2 National Accreditation Ranking, valid until 2027, according to the Adjudication of The General Director of Research and Development, Ministry of Research, Technology, and Higher Education number: 152/E/KPT/2023.

Committed to promoting open access, Madania ensures that research is accessible to a wide audience, including students and researchers in developing countries. The journal also aims to foster collaboration and knowledge exchange among Islamic scholars worldwide, contributing to the advancement of Islamic studies and interdisciplinary dialogue.
